Warm Greetings and Welcome to Fairbanks!

To all Elders, Youths, Convention Delegates, Family Members & Guests of the Alaska Federation of Natives:

We are happy you've chosen our town for this important gathering.

We are Fairbanks' community-owned cooperative grocery store. We're conveniently located Downtown in the old Foodland building at Gaffney and Noble Streets. We're within walking distance of the Westmark and Clarion hotels.

We specialize in organic and locally grown produce, meats, groceries, and wellness and beauty products. Our Deli offers two hot soups daily (one meat and one vegetable), plus a fully stocked grab-n-go case of freshly made sandwiches, salads, wraps and desserts. Stop by in the morning for a hot breakfast burrito!

This week, in honor of AFN, we're offering a combo special:

Get a hot bowl of soup and a sandwich of your choice for just $10. (See details below.)

Everyone is welcome to shop here! Thank you for allowing our community to host and serve you. We look forward to greeting you in person.
